

DECEMBER 30, 1806.

Read the first and second time, and committed to a committee of the whole House, on Monday next.

A Bill,

For the relief of Stephen Kingston.

1 Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of 2 the United States of America, in congress assembled, That the 3 collector of the customs for the port of Philadelphia be, and he 4 hereby is directed to allow to Stephen Kingston, of Philadelphia, 5 merchant, the drawback of duties by him paid on three bales of 6 cinnamon, exported in the ship George Washington, John Shaw,
7 master, from the port of Philadelphia, on the 22d day of July,
8 1801, and also on eleven hogsheads of refined sugar, exported in the 9 same ship, from the same port, on the 23d day of the same month, 10 said ship being bound for Algiers. Provided, due proof of the 11 landing of said merchandise, out of the United States, has been 12 exhibited at the office of said collector, as required by law.